

ALL CANADIANS URGED TO SAVE TO AID IN WAR

warning that Nazi loots war against the British empire may reach the height of destructive fury in the near future, and that it can only be averted by the total effort shared by all members of the community without exception. No war is waged, without the entire resources of a nation, military, economic and financial.

"Man-power, with all its heroic value in the fields of actual combat, will not alone suffice. It must be reinforced and continued by the production of munitions, food, clothing, and other essential materials to the efficient exercise of that effort."

We are in the era of scientific warfare, the most expensive kind known to man. The volume of industrial production of military and naval armament employed in former wars has been vastly increased and the types enlarged. To this have been added fleets of tanks, airplanes and other implements of destruction of a size and scale undreamed of only a generation ago.

URGENT NEED

In a total effort carried on with such expensive agencies finance necessarily plays a most vital part. To meet the cost immense sums must be raised by the government through taxes and borrowing.

It is on this aspect of Canada's effort that I am asked to speak in support of the war savings campaign now being conducted by the minister of finance in a national appeal to all Canadians to contribute to the war effort. It is obvious to all Canadians that expenditure for the current year may reach a total of $1,000,000,000, the short of the entire capital stock of Canada of the Great War through-out its four year duration. The unprecedented expenditure has been increased in large part by the conditions of warfare meted out to the enormous costs of munitions, armaments and other equipment. The vast expansion of Canada's naval and air services.

SAVE AND LEND

To meet this expenditure, which will necessarily increase rather than diminish as the war goes on, it is imperative that every Canadian citizen fully realize his responsibility to contribute to our financial effort. The minister of finance, Mr. Bennett, has said that the government will not be required to raise money for the war. The minister of finance, Mr. Bennett, has said that the government will not be required to raise money for the war. The minister of finance, Mr. Bennett, has said that the government will not be required to raise money for the war.

CALL TO PATRIOTISM

In this connection I recall that at the close of the Great War the people of Canada to the number of 1,000,000 held bonds and savings certificates issued by the government. All of which were eagerly and honorably redeemed by their owners. This meant that practically every family in Canada was the owner of more than three acres of land. It would be impossible to overstate the benefits of this action to the well-being of our people in the post-war period.

Only by saving and lending in the government a very large part of its war expenditures can we hope to avoid the dire economic consequences of progressive inflation and currency which would result in the most serious economic crisis in the history of the world.

One vital factor in war finance is the maintenance of confidence and

Drive To Tripoli

Being Considered

By H. L. PERCY

LONDON, Feb. 8.—(CP)—British military forces were considering today whether to send a force of the Nile 500 miles across the desert to Tripoli and effect contact with the French army of the Nile.

The Nile includes a large French contingent.

British command units were reported to be already many miles west and north of Benghazi, feeling out the situation as regards the possibility of an immediate advance into the desert.

EAST INDIES WILL LICENSE EXPORTS TO ENEMY LANDS

BATAVIA, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The Netherlands East Indies government approved today an export licensing system applicable to 30 countries, including Germany, for the purpose of preventing raw materials from reaching enemy nations.

A special licensing committee is authorized only to "grant an export license when there exists in the country of origin sufficient proof that no increase of the enemy's war effort is expected to result."

Japan, a partner of the European Axis powers, is not listed among the 30 nations affected, but reliable sources are quoted as saying it would fall within a class to which the law stipulates, "no more exports will be allowed than the quantities estimated as normal imports needed for home consumption."

The Italian army in Ethiopia, however, is completely cut off. Communication has been maintained by airplane from Benghazi to the air base.

BONE EXPORTS SHOW SALVAGE CAN HELP WAR

OTTAWA, Feb. 8.—(CP)—Mr. J. W. Watson, of Brampton, Ont., director of Canada's National Salvage campaign, today pointed to the Dominion's 1940 export of bones to the United States as an amazing instance of what Canadians can do with cast-offs to help win the war.

From five provinces, said Mr. Watson, Canada sent to the United States last year 70,000 hundredweight of bones valued at $74,479. Ontario supplied more than half of the total—37,775 hundredweight worth $47,801.

This export means that the United States dollars are coming into Canada to help us along in our war effort," he said. "Imagine if Peter's today."

The thousands of bones which are thrown away without a thought," Mr. Watson said, his bones-export figures were gathered at points of origin and at the points of export, that some bones might have been sent across provincial boundaries before going into the United States.

ONTARIO WILL GIVE SUBSIDY HELP FARMERS

Millions To Aid Hog and Cheese Producers, Feed Grain Shipments

TORONTO, Feb. 8.—(CP)—Premier Mitchell Hepburn announced Friday night after a two-day agricultural conference at Queen's Park that recommendations had been made at the conference involving the subsidization of an estimated $2,700,000 by the Ontario government.

The proposed subsidies were to benefit cheese and bacon hog producers and to assist in the movement of feed grain from Western Canada into Ontario.

The conference representatives included H. H. Manning, president of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, and Frank L. J. Smith, president of the United Farmers' Cooperative Commonwealth.

In addition to the subsidy recommendations the conference urged legislation authorizing the department of education to make effective the effort to provide farm labor from schools and colleges as a step to relieve the shortage of farm help.

The conference also recommended that the government should support its government plan of paying Ontario cheese producers a two-cent-a-pound bonus on 1941 production, a step which was taken by the government by order-in-council and which is expected to cost the province $200,000.

The second subsidy recommendation was that the Ontario government provide funds to maintain production of hog type hogs in Ontario to the level of the federal agreement. A resolution was passed asking the government to make a study of the face of rising wartime costs.

ON PREMIUM BASIS The proposed subsidy was placed on a premium basis to encourage quality improvement and the resolution asked that payment on grade "A" be 30 cents per hog greater than on grade "B-1" and that the minimum payment on grade "B-1" be 20 cents per hog.

Under the food agreement, the British food ministry pays a rate of $13.82 a 100 pounds on all grade "A" Wilshire sides and $10.00 for all grade "B" delivered at the Canadian seaboard.

On feed grain the conference recommended that the Ontario government accept the offer of the federal government in respect to moving 2,000,000 bushels of grain into Ontario—an offer to pay 50 cents per bushel on the cost of the freight from the head of the Great Lakes to the point of destination, provided the other half would be paid by the province of destination.

The conference resolution added a suggestion that the Ontario government pay half the cost of cars originating west of the lakehead, provided the federal government will agree to the proposal to Ontario was $200,000.

NEW GOVERNOR OF FALKLANDS LIVED IN B. C.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—(CP)—Allan Wopsey, Cardinal, who once taught school and worked as a newspaperman in British Columbia, Friday was appointed Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Falkland Islands, succeeding Sir Herbert Hester.

He had been colonial secretary of the islands since last year. The Falkland Islands are situated in the South Atlantic to the east of Patagonia.

Mr. Cardinal, who was born in England 44 years ago, has had a distinguished career in the colonial service. He taught some years ago in schools in Vancouver and Victoria, and was for some time in the staff of the Vancouver Daily News-Advertiser, before his amalgamation with the Vancouver Star in 1917.

In 1918 he was appointed to the West African administrative service, from which he retired in 1922. He was the accredited representative of Great Britain at the League of Nations in connection with the Togoland mandate in 1922 and 1923. From 1924 to the time he became colonial secretary in the Falkland Islands he served as commissioner and judge of the grand court in the Ceylon Islands.

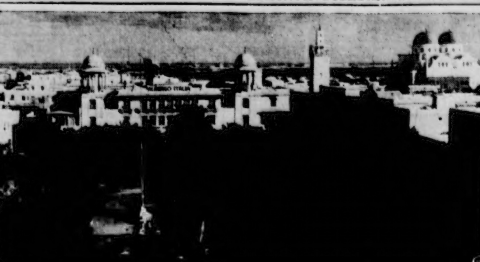

He is the author of a number of works on the Gold Coast. Sir Herbert Hester, Kt., retired after governing the Falkland Islands for the last six years. He has been in the colonial service since 1902.

Today's War Moves

serious. They are especially dangerous under present conditions of combat when changes of methods are occurring which require great mental flexibility and entirely new conceptions of strategy.

NOT HELD BACK The British successes in Africa have been due, primarily, to the rapid assimilation by British army leaders of the lessons of the battle of France. The British have not only been held back by the automatic obedience to governmental authority.

The British conception of education and mechanical discipline has had its trial on the field of battle, for which Sir Peter Mansel prepared it as the ideal test.

The British in North Africa were much better prepared than the Italians, and the matter of supplies. That fact has much significance.

During the months immediately following Italy's entrance into the war, the British had not yet obtained complete control of the Mediterranean. The passage between Italy and Libya was not closed to supply ships.

THE ITALIANS had considerable freedom of movement and could have sent to Marshal Graziani the requisite material for a major offensive against Alexandria and Suez. They delayed however and six months after Italy declared war, when the British offensive began in western Egypt, Marshal Graziani was still complaining that he did not have enough mechanized equipment.

The British were compelled to ship all of their supplies from England, a sea journey of more than a fortnight by the shortest route through the Mediterranean. The Italian home supply bases were not more than two days away from the Libyan front. Yet, the British outperformed the Italians.

The fact that Great Britain was able to send such heavy shipments to North Africa, including squadrons of the latest classes of planes, is strong evidence, in itself, that German air bombardments of British production centres have not seriously interfered with factory output.

The British could not have intended to weaken their home defenses, so that the large supplies forwarded to the army of the Nile must represent excess production.

Especially reluctant would the British have been to part with the planes at home if their air-plant factories had suffered much under the German air attacks. Yet, sufficient planes reached General Wavell to permit him to gain mastery of the air at the start of his offensive and to hold superiority throughout the fighting in Cyrenaica.

One of the principal surprises of the North African fighting has been the inability of the Italian airarmy.

to give a good account of themselves. Aviation training has been straggledly emphasized by Mussolini. However, his plans have shown they were not sufficiently modern for encounters with the British Spitfires whose speed exceeds that of the average Italian plane by perhaps one hundred miles per hour.

OTTAWA GIVES SEAMAN AWARD: AIDED CANUCKS

OTTAWA, Feb. 8.—(CP)—The department of transport announced Friday it has made a "suitable award" to Able Seaman S. H. Light of Leatherhead, Eng., for which Sir Peter Mansel presented a letter of commendation.

Prer French sailors after their Canadian merchant vessel had been torpedoed in mid-Atlantic. Nature of the award was not disclosed.

The department's announcement said that Light, in charge of a lifeboat with nine other members of the crew of a British merchant vessel which also had been torpedoed, spotted the Canadian lifeboat after it had been adrift for two days.

Light and his fellows shared their supplies with the Canadian and Frenchmen. They took the Canadian lifeboat in tow, but because it was shipping water, were forced to abandon it two days later and all 25 men rode in the British boat.

When the ship was picked up by a tramp steamer six days later after a hazardous voyage.

Light, who tended two of the Canadians, who had been injured when their ship sank, also was in charge of navigating his small craft. He was praised by the rescued men and by Canadian officials overseas.

Interpreting War News

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

Associated Press Staff Writer

THE fall of Benghazi, at the end of east Libya, came so swiftly as to suggest complete disintegration of the Italian army in North Africa.

Details of the British bag of prisoners are lacking, but reports from the general headquarters at Cairo indicate wholesale surrenders. There seems little possibility that the Italians can make another stand in North Africa.

Their defeat by British desert lightning war is too crushing and complete not to indicate widespread conviction that Italian army morale is low, that the Italian public acceptance of the Hitler-Mussolini partnership has been grinding and unwilling from the hour it began.

Light, who tended two of the Canadians, who had been injured when their ship sank, also was in charge of navigating his small craft. He was praised by the rescued men and by Canadian officials overseas.

SENTENCED AS FRENCH "SPY": FACES DEATH

Germans Claim Young Englishman Was Foreign Agent—Death Penalty

BERLIN, Feb. 8.—(AP)—A 28-year-old Englishman, Peter William Olaf De Wet, whom the Germans called "a brave and curious man," was sentenced to death Friday after a secret trial on a charge of being a spy in French pay. German officials said he would face the firing squad with many perplexities involved.

Only part of the story was told by the Germans, who claimed that a full disclosure would reveal revealing military secrets.

What little the authorities said indicated that De Wet was arrested on German territory charged with acting as a paid agent of the French. De Wet was charged with espionage, spying out facts about German military establishments.

SON OF OFFICER The inquiry, it was claimed, revealed he was a son of a distinguished family.

He was a representative of the Völkischer Beobachter, Hitler's newspaper.

He wrote: "What this young man did in short but his character remains a riddle. He lived in a certain international atmosphere which has been the result of his adventures. The judges had to decide whether he was an adventurer for a day or a long time."

LONDON, Feb. 8.—(CP)—British officials said Friday night they had no knowledge of the activities of Peter William Olaf De Wet, 28-year-old Englishman sentenced to death in Germany as a spy.

The case revealed here his book "Cardboard Crucifix" which was published in 1939 and dealt with the Spanish civil war.

The Sunday Times review said the book was "a masterpiece of sympathy for the Republican cause which he fought as a mercenary."

The book depicted his hatred of the British Empire and his desire to see "they had all dirt faces and better machines and believed every word capable of treachery and spying."

AMERY SAYS HITLER MOVE IS IMMINENT

LONDON, Feb. 8.—(CP)—L. S. Amery, secretary of state for India, told a London audience today that "the next big move" by Hitler is "imminent" and that the only German hope for a decisive result is conquest of Great Britain.

There is only one direction in which he (Hitler) can hope for a decisive result... and that is in the invasion and conquest of the island," said Amery.

Let none of us underestimate the formidable nature of that effort or the magnitude of the peril which confronts us," he added.

The Nazi "tiger is not as fast as he was," Amery said, but he warned, "we may have to face losses and sacrifices and restrictions such as we have not dreamed of hitherto."

LIBYAN DRIVE ONE OF GREAT WAR VICTORIES

London Press Praises Campaign By British Desert Forces

By SAM ROBERTSON
LONDON, Feb. 8.—(CP)—British staged conquest of Cyrenaica completed by the capture of Benghazi was hailed in the press today as ranking among the greatest in military annals.

Less than two months ago the Imperial Army of the Nile stood on the defensive, outnumbered by the Fascists who had already pushed into Egypt, now straggling remnants of Italy's Germanic army which was to have overwhelmed Egypt and cut the Empire's vital line of supply to the east.

The Royal Air Force will have new possibilities of bombing Tripoli and of destroying military and naval reinforcements if they are sent by either end of the Axis in an effort to save something from Italy's disaster.

The strategic command of the eastern Mediterranean seems secure with Cyrenaica as well as Crete at the service of the British navy and the air arm.

EDITORIAL APPLAUSE
It has been chased more than 400 miles and routed from five defended towns. It has surrendered 110,000 men in prisoners alone and much of its equipment.

Here are samples of the editorial applause accorded Sir Archibald Wavell and his men.

Daily Express: "What a glorious campaign!"

Daily Telegraph: "An achievement without parallel in the history of war."

Manchester Guardian: "Our successes have been beyond all hopes."

Sketch: "In the east we have a military machine not equalled in our history since Wellington fought in the Peninsula."

Times: "We are already in a far better situation to meet any new attempt to retreat from our command of the Mediterranean."

IMPORTANT CHANGES
It is generally agreed that more than Benghazi has fallen into British hands. The capture of Pasarma's No. 1 base on the Adriatic coast and the capital of Massalia's only fertile, well-watered colony—which embraces an area of 250,000 square miles—appeared to affect their chances.

Torrential Storm Disrupts Utilities In New England

BOSTON, Feb. 8.—(AP)—A torrential storm that sent wind velocities as high as 60 miles an hour and pelted some sections of New England with more than two inches of rain in less than 12 hours, disrupting some utility services and facilities, subsided today.

The United States coastguard cutter Albatross was dispatched to aid the S. T. M. off Cape Cod and Plover, or tried disabled with engine trouble four miles east of Portland lighthouse.

British shipping from the skiff channel will be far more difficult now that Cyrenaica ports and airfields are in British hands.

- DESCRIPTION OF CONTEST
Beginning Monday, February 2, 1941, three cartoons each of which will contain a question, will be published daily in The Edmonton Bulletin. Four and only four suggested answers will be printed under each cartoon that appears in the newspaper. One, and only one, of these suggested answers is correct.
- TIME OF CONTEST
The contest will run for twelve weeks.
Contestants must submit their first ninety (90) cartoons on or before Saturday, March 15, 1941, the second ninety (90) cartoons on or before Saturday, April 13, 1941, and the last thirty-six (36) cartoons on or before Monday, May 12, 1941. Submissions should be mailed or personally delivered to the Contest Editor c/o The Edmonton Bulletin's GAME OF CHECK.
- PRIZES
Prizes will be awarded by The Edmonton Bulletin in accordance with the published schedule of prizes to those contestants who achieve the highest scores. Needless to say, no prize will be awarded to those who do not submit answers. In case two or more contestants are tied for a certain prize, just what particular prize each contestant may be entitled to will be determined by submitting to each tied contestant a set of tie-breaking questions, and, if necessary, a second, third, or fourth set of tie-breaking questions. Prizes will be awarded on the basis of the highest scores, in accordance with the scoring regulations governing such questions. At the discretion of The Edmonton Bulletin, contestants may be required to answer tie-breaking questions, without assistance. In the offices of The Edmonton Bulletin, in case of final ties, duplicate prizes will be awarded.
- TERMS AND CONDITIONS
Any person, by entering this contest, agrees and understands that it is a contest of individual effort and that the buying or exchanging of answers automatically disqualifies such contestant from winning a prize. Any contestant, as a condition precedent to being awarded a prize, will be required to sign and execute under oath an affidavit attesting that he or she has not bought or exchanged answers to this contest.
Each contestant agrees to accept as final the decision of The Edmonton Bulletin on all matters affecting this contest, including the judging of answers, the establishment of time limitations, disqualification for any cause, and regulations that may be announced by the officials of this contest. No answers will be returned.
Answers that are unsigned or illegible will not be considered, nor will The Edmonton Bulletin be responsible for entries or communications lost or unduly delayed in the mails.

GERMANS PAY HUGE SUM FOR WAR PURPOSES

Wartime Tax Bill Amounts To More Than 13 Billion Dollars

By ALVIN J. STEINKOPF
BERLIN, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Germans are paying an annual wartime tax bill of some 13,000,000,000 marks ($1,000,000,000) out of a 100,000,000,000 mark ($80,000,000,000)
national income, E. W.
Schmidt, director of the Deutsche bank, claimed today.

Schmidt told foreign correspondents that after the payment of the costs of civil administration, there was about 20,000,000,000 marks, ($16,000,000,000) a year available for war finance.

NO INFLATION
Germany's system of "silent financing"—silent, he explained, because the absence of great loan drives or spectacular campaigns for contributions—has obviated the danger of inflation following great war expenditures, Schmidt contended.

His explanation indicated inflation also had been eliminated because of Germany's tight control of earnings, savings and investments of her citizens.

The people's income, he claimed,
has been apportioned so accurately among civil needs, civil government costs and war finance that no one account was permitted to get out of hand.

NATIONAL DEBT
Germany's national debt was estimated at 70,000,000,000 marks
($5,600,000,000), an increase of 45 600,000,000 marks ($40,000,000,000) since the war's start. This was covered by various types of loans and taxes, Schmidt said.

Tax income is inadequate to finance all Germany's war needs and loans are essential, the banker explained.

Surplus cash is brought about through limitations on the amount that the population may buy. Thus, textile retailing alone, possibly 5,000, 000,000 marks ($400,000,000) are plus, before the war would have been spent to buy clothes.

Exhibition Heads Protest Tariff
Fee On Carnivals

TORONTO, Feb. 8.—(CP)—Members of the Canadian Association of Exhibitions in annual session here Friday passed a resolution of protest against the money in which the federal government had imposed what were termed "tariff fees" on carnivals and circuses.

Exhibitions imported from the United States.
(New circus and carnival fees were published in the Canada Gazette last January 25.)

Association members said the new fees would mean virtually that the United States circuses and carnivals would be barred from Canada.

McCoy Health Service

This common symptom of having to get up once or several times during the night to relieve the bladder is much more prevalent in men than it is in women. It often occurs in men over the age of forty who have an enlarged prostate gland and also in several kidney and bladder conditions. It should therefore be recognized that this nightly interruption of the sleep is not a symptom of some condition within the body, and is not a disease within itself. Without a proper examination, which should include both chemical and microscopic analysis of the urine, together with various other diagnostic tests, it is not possible to determine the exact cause of this troubling symptom, and in order to correct the condition, it is of course essential to first find the cause.

Usually often the onset of symptoms leading to enlargement of the prostate gland are insidious and it may be very difficult for the patient to state with any degree of accuracy just when the trouble began. The typical case, however, usually presents a middle-aged man, in apparently good health, who complains of a hesitating-on condition in the matter which is anxiety but not painful. Later, the frequent desire to urinate becomes more pronounced, and the bladder becomes evident, and there previously was no trouble at all. The patient then he finds that it is necessary to get up once or twice in the night in order to void. In a few months time or even years, the condition gradually

CARDINAL TO LEAD PRAYER FOR VICTORY

Special Services Will Be Held Sunday Throughout Quebec

By WILLIAM STEWART
MONTREAL, Feb. 8.—(CP)— Rédempteur Cardinal Villeneuve came to Montreal Friday night from French-Canada's capital for prayer for victory ceremonies Sunday which will be held here and in more than 5,000 churches and chapels in the province.

The Cardinal, only prince of the church in Canada, will be the celebrant of a solemn mass for victory in 181-year-old Notre Dame church, largest in North America.

The mass will be celebrated at the same time in Roman Catholic places throughout every city, town and village in Quebec. Special services and prayers also will be offered at Christ Church, Montreal's Anglican cathedral, and other Protestant churches here and elsewhere in the province. Montreal's Jewish population will offer prayers in their synagogues today.

The day of prayer for victory was pre-announced last month by Sir Eugene Forth, Quebec's lieutenant-governor, at the request of Premier Adélard Godbout. The Cardinal and 19 Quebec archbishops and bishops joined a pastoral letter telling Sunday aside for the celebration of the mass for victory.

The ceremonies and a sermon by the Cardinal will be broadcast in Canada and the United States, and carried to South America. The British Broadcasting Corporation will carry the Cardinal Villeneuve's words to Europe and all parts of the British Commonwealth. A broadcast to French-Canadian troops overseas has been arranged.

Justice Minister Ernest Lapointe also will be heard as he reads a special-written prayer invoking divine assistance in the attainment of a victory "right over might."
"Justice over injustice." The prayer also will be read in the other Quebec churches after mass.

Officials Warn
Of Racket Game
In War Savings

TORONTO, Feb. 8.—(CP)—War savings officials here said Friday night they had received the first hint that racketeers will be worked in connection with Canada's war savings campaign, and they warned that anyone asking for cash subscription is not an authorized canvasser.

They said a Toronto woman had been approached by a man asking for a cash subscription to Canada's war savings effort. The woman asked the man to wait and then went to telephone police. When she returned the canvasser was gone.

EDMONTON, ALBERTA—SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1941

M'QUEEN RITES TO BE HELD AT FIRST CHURCH

AIRPLANE WILL BRING COUPLE OUT OF ARCTIC

Plans for Edmonton's torchlight procession and military parade to be held on Thursday, February 20, are proceeding smoothly, it was announced by Ald. A. Blair Pater-

Ex-Ald. Douglas A. Great, organizer and marshal of the parade, reported that it will be the greatest event staged in Edmonston in recent years, and that it is anticipated the parade will be from three to three-and-a-half miles long. Active and reserve army units, air force units, volunteer corps and veterans' organizations will be represented in the parade, he said.

Legion of Frontiersmen have volunteered their cooperation in the effort, and city police will cooperate in the parade. The Canadian Airways plane piloted by North Sawle will leave Edmonton Sunday carrying two men into the Arctic and intending to pick up two people on a tiny island in the frozen ocean to bring them outside.

W. "Daddy" Gibson, western Airline supervisor for the Hudson's Bay Company, will be aboard the plane, accompanied by I. A. Learmont, who will be stationed at Fort Ross, the world's farthest north trading post.

Pilot Sawle will fly the trip in Yellowknife and Pilot Alf Caywood will take it from there to Comox.

Mr. Groat reported that at least 16 bands will take part, and it is estimated that more than an hour Gaywood will pick up Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Washburn at Richardsburg, Missouri, and take them across the V. C. line.

Mr. and Mrs. Washburn have spent the winter in the Arctic, doing research work on glaciation and ice movements. Mr. Wash-

FLARES TO BE USED

To add to the realistic effect of the parade, red and yellow flares will be attached to the street light standards along the Jasper Avenue route. These flares will be operated by hand.

The Washburns have travelled by dog team from Lety Harbor across the ice. They intended to reach Coppermine but found the travelling slow and radioed a request that they be picked up at Richardson Island.

workers from the city engineers' department. In addition the varicolored lights along Jasper will be blazing during the parade period.

Plans are being completed for the Wheel of Victory competition which will be staged by both Edmonton radio stations, it was reported to the publicity committee.

a morning cup of coffee; Helen Huff chatting with friends at the Garneau corner; Lillian Bowley in the shopping district; Gwen Waters boarding a train for the east; Nancy Corbett crossing the border of the Dominion of Alberta; Ota Gunderson window-shopping on Jasper.

Walter Wilson, manager of the Capitol theatre, reported that a mass meeting of all theatre employees in Edmonton would be held at the Capitol theatre on Sunday, February 16, at which it was expected that 100 per cent support for the February payroll saving pledge plan would be forthcoming.

ALD. D. A. GOUD: I have long felt the need for this salvage plan and advocated its adoption in Edmonton while I was a member of city council. During the Spitfire campaign here I staged a minor salvage campaign of aluminumware and with very little effort collected a considerable amount for the fund. There is

Uncle Sam's Parachute Troops Stage Mass Jump

Participating in a mass jump from a huge plane over the training ground, a member of the 501st parachute battalion at Fort Benning, Ga., leaves the ship from the door near the tail, top. At the left, he faces toward the tail as he leaps. At the right, the pack cover of his 'chute is being ripped from the pack carrier by a static line. Bottom picture shows three members of the parachute battalion leaving the transport in a mass jump. The 'chute of the first parachutist is just starting to inflate, the last static line on the second parachutist is ripping off the 'chute cover, and the third man is just stepping through the doorway into space.

New Style Igloo For Iceland

Iceland, strategic northern island which was taken over by the British when Denmark fell to the Nazis, is rapidly being made into an impregnable citadel. It is garrisoned by mechanized Canadian troops to guard against possible seizure by the Nazis. The Canadians are shown here erecting air-raid shelters over machine-gun emplacements on the rocky shore—a strange new igloo for the peaceful island which has had no taste of war since the days of the Vikings.

If Hitler Doesn't Wait Till Spring—

Adolf Hitler may wait until spring to try and invade England—and then again—he might not. Britons are taking no chances and training of troops in mid-winter tactics is continuous. Above, members of the Lancashire Regiment plow through waist-high snowdrifts "across" in Scotland during winter practice.

Return From England

Attaches Chain To Sunken R.C.A.F. Plane

Deep water diver from Port Colborne, Barney Bristow is shown as he prepared to go to the bottom of Lake Muskoka in an effort to recover the bodies of two of four R.C.A.F. fliers who were killed in a mid-air crash on Dec. 13. In his first attempt, Bristow descended 110 feet and managed to attach a chain to one of the sunken planes. The chain snapped however after it had been raised 30 feet.

"What Say? Lick 'Em? Sure We Will!"

The Germans haven't got a chance to lick the British, says John William Wright, M.P. So he told Queen Elizabeth of Great Britain. Above, slightly deaf Mr. Wright cups his ear during a chat with Her Majesty, when she recently visited a Y.W.C.A. residential community centre in smart Belgium, requisitioned by authorities to shelter the homeless.

Lost R.C.A.F. Plane Raised

This R.C.A.F. plane which carried two airmen to their death when it plunged into Lake Muskoka last December, is shown as it was raised from the bottom after a diver had succeeded in reaching the plane and attaching a cable to it. The body of one airman was found in the plane. It was identified as LAC, William Gosling of Edmonton.

18 Die, 5 Saved In Trawler Sinking

Approaching Boston harbor the fishing trawler Mary E. O'Hara sank after ramming a barge. The members of the crew sought safety by climbing the mast as it listing in the raging sea. One by one 18 of the fishermen succumbed to the biting cold and dropped into the sea. The surviving five were rescued by the trawler North Star and landed at Boston. At the left is the mast of the ill-fated Mary O'Hara, and on the right, Stanley Connel, one of the survivors, is brought ashore.

Grist For Mills Of War

Yesterday these chunks of scrap iron were automobile engines, piston pistons, washing machines—tomorrow they will be steel ingots and the day after guns and tanks and ships with which to smother an enemy. Canada needs all available scrap iron.

Governor-General Reviews Ski Instructors

His Excellency the Earl of Athlone is shown inspecting ski troops at Lansdowne Park, Ottawa. These picked skiers are the second group to attend a ski school which turns out instructors for the Canadian army.
